Starwood Hotels & Resorts in Hawai'i and Convention Television present

Association Ally - a new partnership for success.

Whatever your goals, a meeting at Starwood Hotels & Resorts in Hawai'i is designed to deliver results. With updated technology, best-in-class service and innovative partnerships, we are always looking for ways to enhance your meeting experience. No wonder we have partnered with Convention Television – the premier convention media company of its kind – to help you drive attendance and increase productivity.

From thoughtful and impactful concessions to powerful communication tools, Starwood Hawai'i's customers are poised to reap the following benefits, thanks to this strategic partnership:

- Dedicated in-room business channels to communicate the convention's daily calendar of events, special association programming, activities, VIP interviews and much more
- Customized resort videos to help you build excitement for the destination
- Intuitive sponsorship packages designed to help you secure the support you require
- Progressive food and beverage discounts for members' meals at leisure
- AV and box handling considerations – beyond industry standards
